Child & Youth Resilience Strategy Map

STRATEGIES - ACTIONS OBJECTIVES So that Families have access to Families are So Provide opportunities So that  $\rightarrow$  concrete supports when they economically stable that and access for families Thurston Thrives need them most Economy Action Team Is it good for the Observe and respond to So children? So that early warning signs that Reduce problem behavior More parents and caregivers Increase protective We live in a have knowledge of child that factors and reduce risk Physical Abuse -So thatdevelopment and parenting community where Build skills and factors in individuals Domestic Violence best-practices Substance Abuse competencies in So and families all children of all Mental Health Children are parents & caregivers that Issues raised in a and children & youth cultures are So that > healthy, safe healthy, safe, environment Improve school So that Children enter kindergarten Outcome Indicator: ACE Scores So that > outcomes for children ready to learn valued and Thurston Thrives Target: Reduction in % of adults and youth ducation Action Team with 3 or more ACEs successful Early Learning/Pre-K K-12 Further the social and Individuals and families have So emotional development that strengths to positively meet So that of children and families the challenges of life Promote individual and So that family resilience Parental Resilience Community networks offer Social Connections social connections, So that Build community Concrete Supports in Times of Need Make community So that ▶ meaningful collaboration, So that > - Knowledge of Parenting and Child Development capacity Thurston Thrives connections common learning, and Community Resilience - Social and Emotional Competence of Children Action Team shared leadership Emerging Issues Thurston Council for Children & Youth