Additional payments:

These payments are to be made in addition to the continued regular rent. If the tenant moves before this payment plan is complete, they must continue to pay until the total amount owed is paid unless both parties agree to negotiate a new payment for the remaining balance.

Tenant agrees that if they will be late on a payment, they will immediately notify the landlord/agent when they will be able to make the payment.

Failure to comply with this agreement may result in landlord issuing tenant a 14 day pay-or-vacate notice.

Landlord agrees that payment will be accepted from any source, including but not limited to charities, non-profit organizations, government entities, and churches.

Landlord also agrees to accept payment in cash, check, certified check, money order, or pledge.
